

Sunday, 14.9.97 Jerusalem

08:30–09:00 – Registration at the Israel Museum, Patrons' Lounge

09:30 – Opening and Lecture Session, Patrons' Lounge: Chairperson – Yael Israeli

James S. Snyder, Director of the Israel Museum – Greetings

Ian Freestone: Compositional Relationship between Byzantine and Islamic

Glass from Northern Israel and the Beth Shearim Slab:

Preliminary Results

Elias Khamis: Two Inscribed Wall Mosaics of the Umayyad Period from Beth Shean

Ayala Lester: Islamic Cut Glass Vessels from Tiberias

Rachel Pollak: A Group of Glass Vessels from the Caesarea Hoard

Lisa Pilosi & Mark Wypyski:

Two Ancient Glass Vessels with Modern Decoration in the Metropolitan Museum of Art

11:00 – Tour of the Museum

Dobkin Glass Pavilion, Shrine of the Book

13:00 – Lunch in the Museum Cafeteria

14:00 – Material from Excavations in the Storerooms

The Jewish Quarter of ancient Jerusalem

Jalame

Recent glass finds from the Israel Antiquities Authority Excavations

16:00 – Lecture Session, Patrons' Lounge: Chairperson – Axel von Saldern

Marie-Dominique Nenna: Primary Glass Workshops in Egypt

Jennifer Price: Deposit of Glass from the Sanctuary of Demeter at Mytilene

Veronica Tatton-Brown: Some New Acquisitions

Delic Vesna: Glass in the Dubrovnik Republic

Hannelore Marschner: Chemical Notes to Glass Finds from the Phidias
Workshop in Olympia, Greece

Helmut Rieke: Problems of Authenticity in Glass from Murano 1930–1970

Daniel Verberne: The New Glass Sub-Department in the Bezalel Art Academy, Jerusalem

20:00 – Welcome Party

2.00 stores
2.3 a tour of museum

Monday, 15.9.97 Tel Aviv

08:30 – By bus to the Eretz Israel Museum in Tel Aviv
from the Windmill Hotel

10:00 – The Glass Pavilion – Guided tours

Documentary film on traditional glassblowing from Hebron

Visits to the Ceramics Pavilion and temporary exhibition of Ancient Cypriote
Ceramics

13:00 – Lunch at the Museum Restaurant

14:00 – Lecture session:

Dan Barag: New Evidence on East Mediterranean Core-Formed
Vessels of the 7th century B.C.

Batsheva Goldman-Ida: 15th-and 19th-Century Enameled Glass Beakers:
their Function and Ornament

Torben Sode: Contemporary Glass Bracelet Makers in India

16:00 – Visit to a private collection of Medieval glass

17:00 – Old Jaffa

Sunset near the sea view of the ancient harbour and the rock of Andromeda

Archaeological museum and tourist center, art galleries

20:00 – Bus to Jerusalem

Tuesday, 16.9.97 Jerusalem

08:00 – By taxi to the Old City from the Windmill Hotel
Old City: the Dome of the Rock, the Jewish Quarter, Church of the Holy Sepulchre

12:45 – By bus from David's Tower to Rockefeller Museum

13:00 – Rockefeller Museum.

Lunch

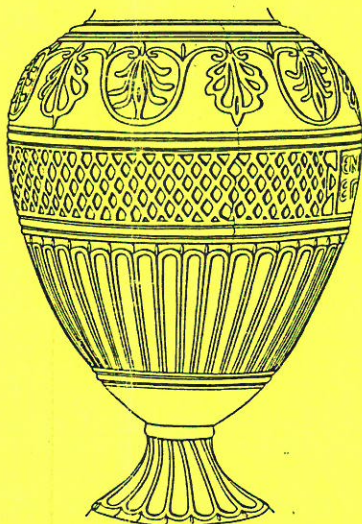

Tour of the Museum

14:30 – By bus to Hadassa Ein Karem hospital to see Chagall windows

16:00 – Islamic Museum

18:00 – Visit to a private glass collection in Jerusalem

Free evening; possibility to visit the Israel Museum – open until 22:00

Ennion jug. Restored drawing.

Wednesday–Thursday 17–18.9.97 Two-day tour

Wednesday

07:30 – By bus from the Windmill Hotel

09:30 – Caesarea

13:00 – Beth She'arim

Lunch at Beth She'arim

15:00 – Sepphoris

From Sepphoris to the Hotel via the Belus river (Na'aman in Hebrew)

18:30 – Estimated arrival at our hotel in Shavei Zion

19:30 – By bus to Old Akko

20:00 – Dinner in the Old City Harbor

Thursday

07:30 – By bus from the Hotel to Akko

08:00 – Guided tour of Crusader Akko

10:00 – By bus to the Galilee

11:00 – Tefen Industrial Park

Visit to "Naharia Glass" followed by light lunch hosted by the plant

Guided tour of Tefen Open Museum

Beth Shean via the sea of Galilee

15:00 – Guided tour of Beth Shean

17:30 – by bus to Jerusalem via the Jordan Valley

20:00 – Estimated time of arrival in Jerusalem

King David St
Central Bus
Market