

TRAVEL GRANTS
for Members' attendance of the ICOM Glass Meeting at the 26th ICOM General Conference, "The Power of Museums"
Prague, Czechia, 20–28 August 2022

GLASS is awarding two different grants for the attendance of the ICOM GLASS Meeting 2022 "Glass as a powerful (museums) material" in Prague, in the context of ICOM General Conference "The power of Museum".

1. Young ICOM members' travel grant programme

Starting from 2018, the award of Travel Grants for Young ICOM Members to attend ICOM International Committee Annual Meetings is managed directly by each one of the thirty ICOM International Committees.

For 2022 ICOM is providing up to € 1200 for transport, accommodation, and conference fee for a young professional.

2. ICOM Glass Scholarships 2022

In addition, GLASS is offering 4 scholarships worth up to € 700 each. The scholarships can be used for transport, accommodation and conference fee.

All grants are provided on a reimbursement basis. The grantees are required to present an account of expenditure of the scholarship, providing receipts. The committee will reimburse expenses only on submitted receipts after the meeting.

All applicants should be:

1. Individual ICOM Members;
2. Up to date with their membership dues for 2019, 2020 and 2021.

Priority will be given to those applicants:

- who are individual members of GLASS IC;

- who reside in countries belonging to categories 2, 3 and 4 as defined in the ICOM membership grid (<https://icom.museum/wp-content/uploads/2021/09/Categorie-pays-2022-EN.pdf>); if funds are available, professionals from Category 1 Countries may be selected;
- who are full-time employees of a museum;
- who are under 35 years;
- who may obtain other sources of funding to enable their attendance at the meeting.

Young members who have received grants in the last years (2018 and 2019) are invited to apply, however they will not be given priority for a grant in 2022.

All applications must include:

- the completed and signed attached application form;
- a short statement of the applicant's motivation for attending the annual meeting and the benefits which he/she expects to derive from it;
- the applicant's curriculum vitae indicating training, work experience, publications, as well as current work responsibilities within his/her institution (maximum one page);
- a copy of a valid travel document (passport, identity card).

Applications can be made by email until April 1st, 2022 to the Secretary of the ICOM GLASS Committee, Anne-Laure Carré, secretary.glass@icom.museum

The nominees will be informed by April 8th, 2022.

The grantees will be required to attend all the activities organized by the Glass Annual Meeting 2022.

Important notes:

Every successful candidate will have to make sure to get, if needed, his/her own visa after being notified of the selection at the present call. ICOM GLASS is not responsible for such procedures.

Also, candidates will have to make sure that they comply with all the COVID-and health-related measures that may be in vigour at the moment of the Conference; this shall fall under the candidates' responsibility.

Please be aware that the conditions and regulations to enter to the Czech Republic may evolve, which could have an impact on the travel logistics and the grants.
